Hi! I'm here to make fun and creative work. I've been doing so since the age of three, drawing Spiderman and waiting for my radioactive spider to come along so I could fight crime and save the world... The super hero ambitions never panned out but the drawing never stopped. I've been working in the Industry for over ten years cultivating creative and whimsical works of illustration, animation, design and film. What about you? Let's chat!
